

NOVELTY SHOP

A Very Interesting Quartet

If you're in the mood to laugh and hear some great harmony... you're shopping in the right place!

Since 2001, Novelty Shop has become a favorite everywhere (even OHIO!) and have been laughed at by some of the greatest audiences in the world. Yes, even Canadians think they're funny, and that's really saying something. And pretty soon those laughers will include you! Just wait and we'll prove it!

Just the mention of "Novelty Shop" stirs the imagination. Who will they be today? Will lead Susan Gleason remember all of the words? Will tenor Sally Burns find some creative new way to disguise her pitch pipe? Will baritone Cindy Gazetti look anything less than young, cute and perky? Will bass Lynne Peirce be able to keep the others in line? Here are the answers: Probably not. Maybe. Not yet, but there is still hope. Not a chance. They'll let you figure out the order.

So feel free to laugh at and with Novelty Shop. And we dare you to figure out who to watch.

Need to contact Novelty Shop? Email novshop@att.net or visit their very interesting website at www.noveltyshopquartet.com